

THE LEADERSHIP LAB

Leadership as it was is now different

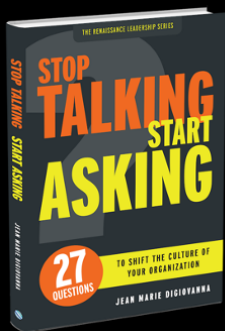

- Leading virtually requires a new level of agility & emotional intelligence
- Employee engagement, motivation and fulfillment are critical to future growth
- Companies who do not invest in their leadership will be left behind

“ Managers account for an astounding 70% of the variance in team engagement, and their efforts substantially impact the bottom line of entire organizations. ~ Gallup Study 2019

The Reality we face today:

- 58% of people say they trust strangers more than their boss. (HBR)
- Employees who work for engaged leaders are 39% more likely to be engaged. (Gallup)
- Great Managers can contribute 48% higher profit than average managers. (Gallup)
- 68% of Managers said they did not receive any management training. (Careerbuilder)

This is why we created the LEADERSHIP LAB

When your Managers join the LEADERSHIP LAB, they will...

- Increase engagement, connection and collaboration among their teams
- Strengthen their leadership agility, adaptability, autonomy and accountability
- Create belonging, deeper trust and psychological safety among their teams
- Foster innovation, creativity and curiosity among their teams
- Master their emotional intelligence and stepped into next-level leadership

The LEADERSHIP LAB brings Leaders across the globe together to share best practices, resolve day-to-day challenges and master new ways to engage, motivate and lead their remote & hybrid teams to success.
